

Wright Dan

Head of Seeds for Syngenta Canada

Dan Wright is the Head of Seeds for Syngenta Canada where he is a strong advocate for modern agriculture and seed technologies that provide growers with a wide variety of options when responding to challenging farming environments.

With 20 years of agricultural sales and marketing experience, Dan has developed a deep knowledge of the seed industry while working with growers and agriculture industry stakeholders across Canada.

Dan's passion for diversity and inclusion and supporting professional growth is well suited to the culture at Syngenta, where he is the executive sponsor of the Diversity and Inclusion Committee.

He holds an MBA through Royal Roads University in Victoria and is an Advanced Agricultural Leadership Program (AALP) class 10 graduate.

Syngenta Canada is an agribusiness whose ambition is to be the most collaborative and trusted team in agriculture, providing leading seeds and crop protection innovations to enhance the prosperity of farmers and ensure the continued sustainability of agriculture.
